This grand total will assign the candidate the General Merit number (GMN) as well as Category merit number (CMN).

b) Course wise consolidated merit lists arranging all the applications irrespective of castes or categories in the order of merit shall be prepared and the principal of the concerned institute shall exhibit the provisional merit list indicating therein i) Original marks ii) Credit marks iii) Corrected marks [total of (i) and (ii)] on the notice board/ website which can be seen by all candidates. A candidate seeking admission to a course covered by these rules shall have a right to raise an objection against the credit marks obtained by another candidate if he has reason to believe that they are not given correctly.

E.3

The candidate raising objection shall lodge in writing within 3 days of the exhibition of the provisional merit list, his objection stating the reasons which led him to believe that the credit marks obtained by the candidates against whom he has prepared the charge were incorrect with sufficient evidence to support his charge where only expression of suspicion or doubt shall not be sufficient to warrant an enquiry.

E.4

The principal of concerned Polytechnic / Institute shall make enquiries in the matter on the basis of the evidence tendered and decide whether the charge be leveled against the candidate who has claimed credit marks have been proved. If the charges are proved, correction to that extent shall be effected and a final list shall be exhibited and date of interview be notified to such candidates. After considering the objections and following the procedure mentioned above, the candidate shall present himself for interview according to the Interview Schedule attached with this prospectus.

E.5

Admission shall be given as per the course wise merits, subject to reservation of the seats and preference. In the first instance candidates equal to the number of students to be admitted be taken up for consideration from the top of the merit list. Thereafter the admissions shall be regulated as follows.

a) Round-I:

All the candidates (open/reserved/male/female) of all the categories as per general merit list will be considered for admission as per their inter se merit. The candidate may select any seat from the seats available at that point of time. Reserved category candidates shall be admitted in open category by virtue of their merit or in their respective category of reservation if open category seats are not available as per their merit. SBC category candidates shall be admitted in open category by virtue of their merit or in their original category of reservation if open category seats are not available as per their merit. For the female candidates the seat availability shall be checked in the following order: (i) in the seats reserved for females in open category or (ii) in the general seats in open category or (iii) in the seats reserved for females in respective caste category or (iv) in the general seats in their respective caste category and the first available seat in that order shall be allotted to them.

b) Round-II

- i) On completion of Round I, if any of the backward class categories mentioned above does not get the required number of female candidates for the percentages laid down, the seats so remaining vacant shall first be filled in from amongst all the candidates (male/female) belonging to respective reserved category.
- ii) On completion of Round -II (i) if any of the backward class categories mentioned above does not get the required number of candidates for the percentages laid down, the seats so remaining vacant shall first be filled in from amongst all the candidates (male and female) of Special Backward Class (SBC) category as per their inter se merit limited to the extent of two percent seats of sanctioned intake capacity of different courses. Such seats for SBC category shall be filled if available for female candidates separately, provided vacancies exist after Round -II (i). After doing so the seats remaining vacant if any from amongst the seats for female candidates, shall be offered to all the SBC category candidates (male/female) as per their inter se merit.
- iii) After doing so the seats remaining vacant in the respective group of categories as mentioned below shall be offered to candidates from the respective group with reference to their inter se merit by adopting the procedure as mentioned below, for each of the group.

Group 1:

- i) Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Castes converts to Buddhism (SC)
- ii) Scheduled Tribes including those living outside the specified areas (ST)

Group2:

- i) Vimukta Jati (VJ)
- ii) Nomadic Tribes (NT-B)

Group3:

- i) Nomadic Tribes² (NT-C)
- ii) Nomadic Tribes³ (NT-D)
- iii) Other Backward Class (OBC)
- iv) For example, the seats remaining vacant in SC or ST categories after round II (ii) shall first be offered to all the SC and ST candidates (male/female) as per their inter-se merit. After doing this, the seats remaining vacant, if any, from amongst the seats for female candidates in this group, shall be offered to all the candidates (male/female) in this group, as per their inter-se merit.

c) Round III:

The seats remaining vacant in reserve categories after completion of round II shall be made available to all the candidates (male/female) of all the reserve categories together, on the basis of their general merit. After doing so, the seats remaining vacant, if any, from amongst the seats for female candidates, shall be offered to all the reserved category candidates (male/female), as per their general merit.

d) Round IV:

After completion of round III, the seats remaining vacant, if any, shall be filled with reference to inter-se merit of all the candidates (open/reserved/male/female) in the region. In this stage, male candidates shall not be admitted against the seats reserved for female candidates. After doing so, the seats remaining vacant, if any, from amongst the seats reserved for female candidates, shall be offered to all the candidates, (open/reserved/male/female) as per their general merit.

E.7 Reporting for admission

The candidate will have to appear before the committee on the specified date as per the schedule attached for technical interview and detailed scrutiny of his candidature along with all original certificates and prescribed fees.

If the candidate fails to report, his / her candidature will be considered as not interested and admission will be offered to the next candidate in the merit list.

Note:

The candidates should note that they have to see the merit list personally on the notice board or website of the institute. Institute will not send them call letters.

E.8

The interview will consist of verification of original documents and validity of experience certificate and also knowledge of candidate in his/her field. If any document is found to be false or if information given by the candidate is found to be false, the candidate will not be considered for admission. The decision given by the Principal of the institute in this matter will be final.

E.9

If any of the statements made in application form or any information supplied by a candidate in connection with his / her admission is at any time found to be false or incorrect such candidate will not be considered for admission & if already admitted, his / her admission will be cancelled at any time during the course. Fees will be forfeited and he / she may be expelled from the Institute by the Principal & prosecuted by Government. However if a candidate appeals against the order of expulsion within eight days from the date of letter of expulsion to the Director of Technical Education, Maharashtra State, Mumbai; then Director's decision in this case will be final.

E.10

On selection after interview the candidate will have to pay the fees and deposits as given in H and take admission on the same day.
